TO PRESENT LOVING CUP. In recognition of the reception given to the Richmond Howitzers on their historic murch last summer by the Confederate Veterans of Alexandria, where the march ended, a del-gation from the tailery will go to Alexandria Monday to present to R. E. Lee Camp, No. 2, a handsome silver loving cap, The token which the Howitzers will present to their friends in Alexandria represents the contributions of the members of the bait-ry and some of their guest; on the "Valley March." It is in the form of a solid aliver loving cup, which stands on an ebouy base. The cup is a graceful plece of plate with two handles, and stand 17 1-2 inches high. It is one of the pretiest pieces of work of its kind ever turned out by a Richmond jeweler. The front of the cup is handsomely en-graved with the following inscription:

Richmond Howitzers, Captain Wm. M. Myers commanding, Richmond, Virginia,

R. E. Lee Camp, No. 2, Confederate Vaterans, Col. W. A. Smoot, commander;

Presented by the

Woman's Auxiliary, R. E. Lee Oamp, No. 2, Mrs. E. H. O'Brien, cha'rman; M. D. Coras Camp, Sons of Veteraus,

Dr. A. E. Garman, commander, all of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, As a token of appreciation of the beautiful reception tendered this battery on the afternoon of June 23rd, 1908, upon the completion of a march of 167 miles through the Valley of Virginia, and a study of the campaigns of that Christian soldier, General T. J. 'S onewall' Jackson. Staunton to Alexandria, June 14th to 23rd,

On the reverse side their appears a complete restar of the Howlizer Battery. Tais is artistically atranged, the full name of every officer and enlisted man in the battery appearing in proper order. Beneath the ros er is a ribbon scroll, on which there appears the Latin motto of the Howitzers, "Cits Mora Aut Vicof the Howitzers, "Cits Mora Aut Vic-toria Lacia," and the date of organiza-

The execution of this part of the work alone is possibly the most extensive ever done by a Richmond isweler, there being a total of one hundred and forty-four names, each with their proper military title.

The following committee from the Howlizer Batters, and those who took put in the march through the Valley, will visit Al-xandria for that purpose Captain William M. Myers, Captain T. M. Worsham, Captain James Power Snith; Lieuteonats Edw. C. Rees, Jas. C. Pollard, John T. Wood and W. H. W. M. 1900; Sorgeants Robert N. Row-sey, G. orge H. Myers, H. F. Levering and F. C.
